LEGISLATIVE SESSION

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the Senate will now return to legislative session.

ORDERS FOR FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1997

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it stand in adjournment until the hour of 9:30 a.m. on Friday, November 7. I further ask unanimous consent that on Friday, immediately following the prayer, the routine requests through the morning hour be granted and that the Senate proceed to morning business for not to extend beyond the hour of 10:30 a.m., with Senators permitted to speak for up to 10 minutes each, with the following exceptions: Senator DASCHLE, or his designee, for up to 30 minutes, from 9:30 a.m. to 10 a.m.; Senator HELMS, or his designee, for up to 30 minutes, from 10 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. LOTT. I might say, Mr. President, since the Democratic leader is here, we have a couple things we are trying to work out. I believe by 10:30 a.m., we will have those problems resolved and that we can continue to consider the Inhofe amendment or the second-degree amendment to it and get the Amtrak legislation also cleared and other issues we will still be working on.

Mr. President, tomorrow, the Senate will then be in a period for morning business from 9:30 a.m. until 10:30 a.m. The Senate may also consider and complete action on any of the following: Amtrak reform, the D.C. appropriations bill—even though there may be some problems with that now, we will continue to try to see if we can work through that—and any other additional legislative or executive items that can be cleared for action. Therefore, Members can anticipate rollcall votes throughout Friday's session of the Senate.

Mr. DASCHLE. Mr. President, I will just ask for the information of our colleagues whether this might be an appropriate time to inform our colleagues that we are not prepared at this point to talk about the weekend, but that they should be prepared to stay here this weekend, given the uncertainty of the schedule.

Would the majority leader care to comment on that?

Mr. LOTT. Well, I think that is a good notice. I think Members are already thinking that may be the case. I have already canceled my own events for Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. And we will continue to work to see if we can find a way to complete action on the three appropriations conference reports. And, of course, we will be waiting to see what the House does on fast track. And depending on that, then, of course, we would proceed accordingly.

But if it is at all possible that we can finish our work on Saturday or Sunday, which I still think we can, I would think we should stay here and get that work done. If we cannot, then we will have to consider the alternatives, but Members should begin to be aware of it. And the odds are now that we will be in session Saturday and even possibly Sunday.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9:30 A.M. TOMORROW

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I now ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order until 9:30 in the morning.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 7:06 p.m., adjourned until Friday, November 7, 1997, at 9:30 a.m.
